AIA SOUTHWEST WASHINGTON SCHOLARSHIP RENEWAL

Annual scholarship renewals are offered through a joint program of the AIA Southwest Washington Component and AIA National to aid college students who are pursuing architecture as a career and are attending a college or university with an accredited architectural degree program.

ELIGIBILITY:

Scholarship renewals are offered to students who have previously been awarded an AIA SWW Scholarship and who are attending a college or university with an accredited architectural degree program while maintaining a minimum 3.0 cumulative GPA as a full time student.

SCHOLARSHIP AMOUNT:

Renewable scholarships are in the amount of $500 yearly. AIA SWW retains the right to not award scholarships or renewals for any reason.

SUBMITTAL REQUIREMENTS:

1. A copy of an acceptance letter from a college or university indicating acceptance into an accredited architecture program. (First time applicants only.) Renewals require either; a copy of course registration clearly indicating continued enrollment in an architecture program (such as Design Studio) or a letter from the Department Head verifying continued enrollment in the accredited architecture program.
2. A copy of your transcript from the previous year showing classes taken, grades obtained and cumulative GPA.
3. One or more scanned images of your most accomplished design project completed during the previous school year or a link to your on-line portfolio.

SUBMITTAL INSTRUCTIONS:

Submittal materials need to be postmarked no later than October 31st.

MAIL TO: AIA Southwest Washington Chapter
