submitted by David Hoel (206) 665-1888

The American Institute of Architects Continuing Education System

AIA/CES Registered Provider Program Summary Handout

Provider: ASSA ABLOY Door Security Solutions

Length: 1 Hour

Program #: AD305

Credits: 1 LU Hour

Program:

HSW: Yes

Description: This course provides an overview of swinging doors, frames, and architectural door hardware. It will cover standard industry nomenclature for hollow metal frames and doors and wood doors. Includes information on mechanical and electronic hardware specification and applications.

A/V Needed: Electrical power and a screen for the PowerPoint or slide presentation. (The CES facilitator supplies the laptop and projectors.)

Learning Objectives: At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to: 1) Identify basic components of door opening; 2) Understand order in which the components are specified; 3) Recognize basic door and frame types; 4) Understand basic electrified hardware options guiding our industry; 5) Avoid common mistakes made when specifying architectural door openings.

Target Audience: Architects, specifiers, owners and other design professionals in the non-residential market. The ideal audience size can be from 6 to over 50. This program meets every experience level with time designed into the program for questions and answers.

How Taught: The CES facilitator utilizes PowerPoint slide presentation to introduce the audience to door, frame and hardware openings. The facilitator will explain various hardware components of a door opening and how they work together, Emphasis will be on the proper specifying of doors and hardware sets. Samples of doors and door hardware will be available. Participants receive a reference sheet as a handout.

Facilitator Qualifications: All ASSA ABLOY Door Security Solutions CES facilitators have been trained on CES guidelines and presentation skills. In addition, they receive continuous in-depth training on Specifications and understanding the Building Design Process.

Costs: There is no cost to bring this program into your firm or chapter meeting.

For more information, contact your local ASSA ABLOY Door Security Solutions Representative at www.assaabloydss.com, or call us at: 203-624-5225.

ASSA ABLOY Door Security Solutions is a Registered Provider with the American Institute of Architects Continuing Education System. Credit earned on completion of these programs will be reported to CES Records for AIA members. Certificates of Completion for non-AIA members are available upon request.